Protect Your Property This Summer

Unoccupied residences are a favourite target for thieves. Whether you intend on spending your summer close to home or travelling, follow these home security tips to remain vigilant of property crime thieves:

- Lock your doors and windows, and keep garage doors closed, even if you are home and spending time in the backyard.
- Avoid posting about your vacation on social media until you've returned home.
- Hold your mail or have a neighbour collect your mail and check on your property while you are away.
- Set up timers on indoor and outdoor lights.
- Consider installing a home security system or motion-sensor lights.

By putting these home security tips into practice, you can enjoy your summer knowing your property is well-protected.
