2022 Community Service Awards Nominations Open

It's time to nominate those inspiring individuals, organizations and businesses that make a positive difference in our community. The annual Community Service Awards are your opportunity to show your appreciation for those who are leading the way and improving our community wellbeing. Do you know a local hero, coach, youth, volunteer, business or teacher who deserves to be recognized? Learn more and submit an award nomination by September 30 at pittmeadows.ca/awards.

New PMAG Exhibit: Cedar Sage & Sweetgrass

Join us from September 17 to October 23 for this exhibit featuring the work of sixteen prominent and emerging Indigenous artists, curated by Cedar Sage & Sweetgrass. The Wild Moccasin Dancers will also be displaying the beauty and vibrancy of pow wow culture through dance. For more information, visit pittmeadows.ca/pmag.

Go Green

Grease doesn't go down the drain!

Metro Vancouver and its municipalities spend $2.7 million every year to repair damage caused by fats, oils and grease in the sewer system. Save your pipes: put grease in your green bin, not down the drain. Learn more: wipeitgreenbinit.ca.

What's On?

Council this Month

Local Government Elections Mail Ballot Voting

On October 15, Pitt Meadows residents will elect one mayor, six councillors and two school trustees for a four year term. This year, all registered electors can vote by mail. Request a mail ballot package at City Hall during normal office hours or online and return it in person or via mail by 8:00 p.m. on October 15. The last day to request a mail ballot be mailed to you via Canada Post is October 3. Leave extra time when mailing your completed ballot to ensure it arrives in time to be counted. Learn more at pittmeadows.ca/election.

Family Rec Centre Annual Maintenance Shutdown (Aug 29-Sept 12)

The Family Recreation Centre will be closed from August 19 to September 12. For registration and customer service, please visit pittfitandfun.ca or email parksandrec@pittmeadows.ca. For facility bookings, please call 604.465.2499 or email bookings@pittmeadows.ca. For more details, visit pittmeadows.ca/parksandrec.

National Day for Truth and Reconciliation

September 30 is National Day for Truth and Reconciliation, which honours the lost children and Survivors of residential schools, their families and communities. The City is recognizing the day with a digital highway sign and banners on the side of Pitt Meadows Art Gallery. There is a Place of Reflection in šxʷhéł ʷnəs Spirit Square and City Hall will be lit up in orange lights. Orange Shirt Day Society is driving a global conversation on all aspects of residential schools and the impacts they have left behind. Visit orangeshirtday.org.
