Council this Month 2023-2026 Strategic Planning

Council and the City's Leadership Team will be meeting to build the 2023-2026 Strategic Plan. The new Strategic Plan will establish the City's vision, mission, and strategic areas of focus, and will serve as a guiding framework for policies, budgets and decision-making over the next four years. Learn more at pittmeadows.ca/strategicplan.

Pop-Up PMAG Exhibits

From March 7 – March 30, check out the beautiful paintings by Suzanne Amendolagine at the Pop-Up PMAG exhibit in the City Hall lobby. For more information, visit pittmeadows.ca/pmag.

Permit Required for Spring Agricultural Burning

Burning of vegetative matter is allowed on Agriculturally Zoned Properties only with a permit during the spring burning season (March 1 to May 31). You can obtain a burning permit online at mypittmeadows.com or in-person at City Hall. For more information, visit pittmeadows.ca/burning.

Planning for Pitt Meadows Day

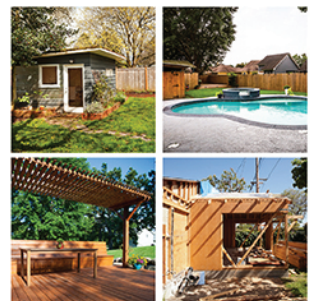

Planning for Pitt Meadows Day (Saturday, June 3) is underway. The City is currently requesting applications for event sponsors, parade entries, artisans, and field exhibitors. For more information, visit www.pittmeadowsday.ca.

Register for Spring Programs!

The City is excited to offer a variety of fun programs this spring including fencing, teen weight training, fitness, dance, photography, stroller circuit classes and more! The Spring Recreation Guide is available now at the Pitt Meadows Family Recreation Centre and online, with registration beginning March 7 at 8 a.m. Register online at pittfitandfun.ca, by phone at 604.465.2470, or in person. Learn more at pittmeadows.ca/parksandrec.

Do you need a permit for that?

Planning to build a deck, add a shed, or make renovations? It's the property owner's responsibility to obtain a building permit from the City for a variety of projects, prior to construction. Check the rules before building and ensure it's done right the first time. Learn more: pittmeadows.ca/permits.

Go Green

Think Thrice About Your Clothes!
In Metro Vancouver, we throw away 44 million pounds of clothing per year. Visit clothesarentgarbage.ca for tips to minimize waste.
