

Digital Edition

City Talks

July 2023

City of
Pitt Meadows
THE Natural PLACE

pittmeadows.ca

Council Meetings - July 11, 18 & 25 at 7pm

Watch Meetings Live on our website!

Canada Day in Pitt Meadows

Join us in šxw'hék'wnəs (Spirit Square) on July 1 for a day of fun activities that include a pancake breakfast, show and shine, artisan alley, dog show, kids zone, food trucks and main stage entertainment! For a schedule of events and activities, visit pittmeadows.ca/canadaday.

Summer Events are Back!

Residents can enjoy the return of some great free local events this summer including the Summer Serenade outdoor concert series, Bard on the Bandstand, Farmers Market, and the Artists in our Parks program, which features local musicians, visual artists, and performers throughout the community. For more details and the full schedule, visit pittmeadows.ca/communityevents.

Be Water Smart

Sweep driveways and decks with a broom instead of a hose. A 15-minute clean could use 675 litres of water. Learn more water saving tips at welovewater.ca.

What's On?

Property Taxes are due July 4
Farmers Market - Every Tues until Sept
Open Art Studio – July 4 & 19
Summer Serenade - Wed from July 6 to Aug 23
Bard on the Bandstand – July 13 to 15
pittmeadows.ca/calendar

Council this Month Agricultural Plan Update

Attend the Council meeting on July 18 at 7pm to hear our findings from engagement on the Agricultural Plan update so far. This is an opportunity for the community to engage with Council regarding the future growth of our local agricultural and agri-food sector. For more information, visit pittmeadows.ca/councilmeetings.

Pop-Up PMAG Exhibits

Check out the beautiful work of featured artist, Laura Stark, at the Pop-Up PMAG exhibit in the City Hall lobby until August 3. For more information, visit pittmeadows.ca/pmag.

Reminder: Watering Regulations in Effect

Stage 1 Residential lawn watering is in effect, which limits residential watering to one day per week: even-numbered addresses on Saturdays and odd-numbered on Sundays. For more information, visit pittmeadows.ca/waterrestrictions.