2021 Community Service Awards Nominations Now Open

It's time to nominate those inspiring individuals, organizations and businesses that make a positive difference in our community. Throughout this year we have witnessed our community continue to support and help each other through amazing acts of kindness, compassion, courage, and commitment. Do you know a local hero, coach, youth, volunteer, advocate or teacher who deserves to be recognized? Nominations are open until October 18. To learn more and complete the easy online nomination form, visit pittmeadows.ca/awards.

New PMAG Exhibit: Karen Goodfellow (Sept 18-Oct 31)

Pitt Meadows Art Gallery (PMAG) is welcoming award-winning contemporary artist Karen Goodfellow for the new exhibit River Bends & Totem Ends starting September 18. The collection of mixed media sculptures and paintings reflect the themes of the cycle of nature and wood as it relates to her mixed ancestry – colonial settler mixed with Katzie/Stó:Lo and Squamish ancestry. Visit the in-person and virtual exhibit at pittmeadows.ca/pmag.

Go Green

Grease doesn't go down the drain!

Metro Vancouver and its municipalities spend $2.7 million every year to repair damage caused by fats, oils and grease in the sewer system. Save your pipes: put grease in your green bin, not down the drain. Learn more: wipeitgreenbinit.ca.

Council this Month

In-person Council Meetings Resume

Beginning in September, Pitt Meadows City Council will return to in-person meetings at City Hall's Council Chamber. Members of the public are invited to attend or to watch the livestream online. Both in-person comments and online submissions will be welcomed during Question & Comment Period. To learn more and view upcoming meetings and agendas, visit: pittmeadows.ca/councilmeetings.

Family Rec Centre Annual Maintenance Shutdown (Aug 30-Sept 12)

The Family Recreation Centre will be closed from August 30 to September 12. Customer service and facility bookings will be unavailable in-person or by phone. For program registration and customer service, visit pittfitandfun.ca or email parksandrec@pittmeadows.ca. Drop-in programs will resume with new schedules as of September 13. For more details, visit pittmeadows.ca/parksandrec.

Free Emergency Preparedness In-person Workshops

Starting September 8, we're offering a series of free emergency preparedness workshops to equip citizens with the necessary information so that they can plan ahead and take care of themselves and their neighbours during a catastrophic event. Learn more at pittmeadows.ca/beprepared.
