The City Launched a New Website

The City of Pitt Meadows has launched its first new website since 2007, with brand new features and a fresh new look, as well as a new URL. Formerly the site could be found using the "bc.ca" web domain, but the City has upgraded to a more streamlined URL, and is now pittmeadows.ca. The new design was the result of extensive public and stakeholder feedback, thank you to those who participated!

Remembrance Day Ceremony Nov 11

Join us on Sunday, November 11 at the cenotaph in Spirit Square (12007 Harris Road) to honour our veterans. The procession begins at 10:45am and includes a fly over by the Fraser Blues at approx. 10:56am. There will be a reception in the Pitt Meadows Family Recreation Centre following the ceremony.

Art & The Indigenous People at the Gallery

Explore Indigenous artistic expressions of history, heritage, and culture in a variety of mediums in the Pitt Meadows Art Gallery's current exhibit, Art & The Indigenous People. The show runs until Nov 10. The Gallery is located at 12492 Harris Road; stop in Tues-Fri 12pm-4pm; Sat & Sun 11am - 5pm.

Cannabis in Pitt Meadows

Cannabis became legal in Canada on October 24. What does this mean in Pitt Meadows? We have updated our bylaws regarding retail sales, growing and cultivation, and zoning and land use with regard to cannabis. To learn more, visit our website at pittmeadows.ca.

Go Green

Create Memories Not Garbage!

As the holiday season is approaching, let's prepare to celebrate with less waste. Give the gift of experiences or services instead of "stuff", use reusable materials for gift wrapping, plan ahead, buy only what you need, and choose sustainable, good quality items with minimal to no packaging.
