

City Talks

March 2022

Council Meetings
March 1, 8 & 29 at 7pm

Watch Meetings Live
On our website!

Visit pittmeadows.ca/covid19
for updates, news and resources.

Register for Spring Break Camps & Programs!

Spring break is just around the corner and Pitt Meadows Recreation is offering spring break daycamps with your child's health and safety as the top priority. Registration for daycamps is open now! The Spring Recreation Guide is also available, featuring activities from April to June. Registration for programs begins March 8 online at pittfitandfun.ca or by phone 604.465.2470.

Have Your Say on Housing in Pitt Meadows

The City is preparing a Housing Needs Assessment and is seeking community feedback to create a better understanding of the current and future housing needs in the city. Community feedback will influence future community planning, potential funding, and policy decisions. Visit haveyoursaypittmeadows.ca/housing to learn more and complete the survey by February 28.

Go Green

Think Thrice About Your Clothes!

In Metro Vancouver we throw away 44 million pounds of clothing per year. Visit clothesarentgarbage.ca for tips to minimize waste.

What's On?

Echoes of Mother Earth Exhibit at PMAG – Until March 27
Free FireSmart Workshop – March 12
Free Emergency Preparedness Course – March 30
pittmeadows.ca/calendar

Photo taken in 2018

Council this Month

Planning For Pitt Meadows Day

Mayor and Council are hopeful that the community will be able to return to in-person events in time for Pitt Meadows Day. With the time required to plan this large community event, the City is currently seeking applications for event sponsors, parade entries, artisans, and field exhibitors. Visit pittmeadowsday.ca for more information.

Permit Required for Spring Agricultural Burning

Burning of vegetative matter is allowed on Agriculturally Zoned Properties only with a permit during the spring burning season (March 1 to May 31). You can obtain a burning permit online at mypittmeadows.com or in-person at City Hall. For more information, visit pittmeadows.ca/burning.

Lost or Stray Dog?

The City has a new agreement for dog kenneling services with the Maple Ridge SPCA. Pitt Meadows residents are now asked to contact 604.463.9511 regarding lost or stray dogs and are reminded that a dog licence helps ensure your pet can be safely returned home. Learn more at pittmeadows.ca/dogs.