New Art Gallery Exhibit: The King & I

Pitt Meadows Art Gallery welcomes art pieces by former Vancouver Canucks Goalie Richard "The King" Brodeur.

Brodeur utilizes oils, acrylics, and watercolors to create abstract paintings as well as images of Canadian landscapes. His most popular series titled "My childhood Hockey Memories" depicts youngsters playing hockey on frozen ponds, backyard rinks, streets and back alleys. Join us for the opening reception on Saturday, September 14 from 2-4pm. The exhibit runs until November 3. For more information, visit pittmeadows.ca/pmag.

Go Green

Don't put grease down the drain! Fats, oils and grease clog pipes. For small amounts, wipe or scrape out the pot or pan and put the grease into your green bin. Learn more at metrovancover.org/grease.
