

Celebrate Pitt Meadows Day Saturday June 2!

Join in the community celebration of Pitt Meadows on June 2! The day begins with the traditional pancake breakfast at 7am followed by the parade at 11am. Enjoy activities and entertainment all day at Harris Road Park, and don't miss the annual chicken and salmon barbeque, cooked by local firefighters.

Harris Road and Hammond Road both CLOSE at 10:00am and reopen after the parade. Please plan alternate routes and watch for traffic control volunteers during that time.

We hope to see you at Pitt Meadows Day!

77TH ANNUAL PITT MEADOWS DAY!
SATURDAY, JUNE 2, 2018

Pitt Meadows Day Safety Message: Water balloons will not be permitted during the water fight at the parade – water guns are ok! Please do not allow children to run out onto the parade route. And remember, Pitt Meadows Day is a family-friendly event, alcohol and other intoxicating substances are prohibited at all Pitt Meadows Day activities.

Chat with the Mayor

For locations & times:
pittmeadows.ca/chatwiththemayor

Mayor Becker is at coffee shops and venues around Pitt Meadows on Saturday mornings as part of his Chat with the Mayor series. Pitt Meadows citizens are invited to 5-10 minute one-on-one visits to discuss issues that are important to you. The cost of one basic cup of coffee is on the mayor, come on by! The mayor will also be visiting with local seniors at the Pitt Meadows Seniors centre on June 21 at 11:30am. Visit pittmeadows.bc.ca/chatwiththemayor for more locations and times.

Summer Activities in Pitt Meadows

Every summer Pitt Meadows offers great outdoor cultural events! Beginning in July, enjoy weekly live music in Spirit Square every Wednesday with the Bruce James Orchestra. On July 19-21, Bard on the Bandstand comes to Spirit Square with this year's performance of The Merry Wives of Windsor! Also, watch for local artists in our Parks program. Check the Community Calendar for more information at pittmeadows.bc.ca/communitycalendar.

Summer Recreation Program Registration Now Open

Looking for fun recreation programs for the summer? Pick up a copy of our Summer Recreation Guide at City Hall or the Rec Centre! Reserve your spots today to avoid disappointment!

Have Your Say: Rail Crossing Infrastructure Public Input

Last month, the federal government announced a $55.8 million federal investment infrastructure project bundles including an addition of nearly 5km of track paralleling the existing rail track throughout Pitt Meadows, a four lane underpass at Harris Road, and construction of a two-lane over pass at Kennedy Road. The City of Pitt Meadows is hosting an engagement session on June 25, 2018 from 4pm to 8 pm at the Heritage Hall for residents to provide input, specifically on rail grade separation projects. Visit pittmeadows.bc.ca for updates.

Council This Month

Golden Ears Phase 3 & 4 Bylaws Adopted. On May 22, Council adopted zoning amendments to facilitate the development of the Golden Ears Business Park Phase 3 & 4. Community benefits include 13 acres of park land in South Bonson with an estimated value of $22.5 million; an enhanced trail network; additional tax revenues estimated at $2 million; and opportunities for job creation. Council will develop a community interface committee to proactively engage on construction impacts on neighbourhood livability, a first in Pitt Meadows. Terms of reference will be developed for this new committee and immediate neighbour consultation will occur during the development permit process in future years.
